This month's ambassador: Lynn Stroud

About Lynn Stroud:

Lynn and her husband Bob Stroud re-located to Newbury Court from Cincinnati in 2015. She wasted no time in transforming her suite into a stunning showcase and welcoming home. So stunning, in fact, that it was featured in a lifestyle article in the Concord Journal. Her effervescent personality and tremendous energy have made her a bright star among residents and staff at Newbury Court. With a background in marketing, special events and development, she has become a valuable asset to the marketing team, contributing her time and keen insights to our events.
